The Mayor's Book Club is pleased to present our Book-of-the-Month for March:

The Night Befor

The Night Before The Wedding

By Natasha Wing

It's Fun and Easy!

The Night Before the Wedding by Natasha Wing and illustrated by Amy Wummer is a wonderful story about a wedding and all of the necessary preparations.

Tip #1 – The Night Before the Wedding has a special rhyming scheme throughout the story. Try to see if you can identify it. It helps the book keep a great reading pace.

Tip #2 – The book highlights an event many families and friends enjoy attending—a wedding. It can be delightful to discuss which big events are some of your favorites to relate to the story.

Tip #3 – The illustrations featured throughout the book can assist emerging readers in context clues. Matching the words on the pages with the images can elevate a story.

Did You Know?

Children raised in homes with plenty of reading material available have a better chance of being good readers. Making sure your child has an abundance of good books on hand doesn't have to be expensive. Used books, comics and magazines cost pennies and your library has books for everyone in the family for free. Be sure to ask your librarian for recommendations. By enjoying books together as a family, you can foster a love of reading in your children that will help them succeed in school and in life.
